

TO BE PUBLISHED IN TWO LOCAL NEWSPAPERS:

JOB OFFER

International Organization invites application for the position of:

Program Specialist-Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E)

The Program Specialist-Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist is responsible for program, project activities, monitoring and evaluation including maintenance of M&E tools and systems; she/he serves as an advisor on possible improvements to program/project implementation.

Required qualifications:

Education: A University Degree or the host country equivalent in a field relevant to development assistance, such as public or business administration, political science, education, economics, international relations, statistics, or a closely related field is required. Advanced degree is desirable.

Experience: Three to five years of progressively responsible, job-related experience in project implementation, monitoring evaluation, analysis and interpretation of data and presentation of findings in written form is required.

Language: Level IV (Fluent) English, French and creole is required.

Knowledge: Must have a good knowledge of monitoring and evaluation techniques for development programs; a sound understanding of the OTI programs, the overall USG Haiti program.

Skills: Experience in program reporting and monitoring, strong interpersonal skills, and the ability to work in a team environment. Good computer skills, especially ability to use Microsoft Office suite

This position is compensated in Local Currency.

Only qualified candidates will be contacted

Curriculum Vitae should be sent in English no later than March 30, 2012 to:
paphr@usaid.gov

